TYPE CATALOGUE

The typeface you choose has a dramatic impact on the style and formality of your invitations. When selecting type for your invitations or announcements, keep these guidelines in mind:

CHOOSE A TYPEFACE THAT FITS THE STYLE OF YOUR WEDDING

A formal script will seem an ironic choice for an informal beach wedding, whereas some decorative typefaces will never be convincing on a formal invitation. All caps, or caps and small caps, usually look more formal than caps and lower case. All lowercase will always look contemporary, but may still convey a formal feel, depending on type size and layout.

IT'S USUALLY BEST TO USE NO MORE THAN TWO DIFFERENT TYPEFACES IN A DESIGN

If using two typefaces, choose contrasting faces from two different categories (body text in all caps, with names in script, for example).

IF YOU NEED TO FIT IN A LOT OF WORDS, AN ALL CAPS TYPEFACE IS A GOOD CHOICE

An all caps face can save space because there are no ascenders and descenders as in lowercase letters, so lines can be closer together.

CONSIDER LEGIBILITY

Keep in mind that some scripts and genre/specialty faces can be difficult to read, especially if there are a lot of words. These faces tend to work best when used sparingly.

After you place your order I will email you a proof for your review. Changes and corrections can easily be made at this time. Only after the proof is approved will your invitations be printed.

If you have questions about selecting or mixing typefaces please don't hesitate to ask!
